I am an experienced and talented freelance designer offering illustration, graphic design, typesetting, website design and original creative work.

I will happily take on full/part-time jobs or individual freelance projects.

I'm based in Portishead, Bristol and can work from my place or come to you.

I use a Mac and have PC experience. I am competent in Illustrator and InDesign, and have a good working knowledge of Photoshop and Dreamweaver.

I work well under pressure, and I am creative, hardworking, reliable and resourceful.

1960: Born – brought up in Woodcote, Oxfordshire

1965: Attended Woodcote Primary and Secondary Schools – passed eight O levels and CSE typing

1976: Went on to sixth-form college – gained three A levels in English, Medieval Studies and Art

1979: Moved from home to study at Maidstone College of Art –came away with a BA Hons in Graphic Design

1983: Got first job as a junior designer in Henley-on-Thames

1984: Helped create GT Design, a graphic design company in Reading, and later became a director of the company when it moved to Sonning-on-Thames. Clients included Vodafone and Digital

1996: Left GT Design to travel and see more of the world

1997: Met a chef (now my husband) and became co-manager of Uno Restaurant & Bar, Dargaville, New Zealand

2000: Left Uno and created The Funky Fish Café, Bayllys Beach, New Zealand

2007: Sold The Funky Fish Café and started as a freelance graphic designer, working for local clients and part-time for NZ newspaper publisher NorthSouth Multimedia

2011: Moved back to England to be near family

Now: Working as freelance designer ...
